

INTRODUCTION TO CREATIVE WRITING

Freeing your Creative Voice

Being creative and expressing yourself creativity is an essential component of self expression for women.

Have you always wanted to write but just don't know where to start?

You'll soon discover how much fun writing really is and just how good you might actually be. This workshop will get you started by exploring: What really makes a story work? How can you make characters come alive and do things that will surprise even the writer?

Find out for yourself and make a start on a piece of writing that will take you away from the everyday. Have fun making fictional from reality, or delve deep into your own experiences to write memorable memoir.

By the end of the workshop, after completing a number of writing activities, you'll have the rough draft of a short story or piece of memoir to complete at home. Imagine - your very own creative writing piece to keep working on.

You'll need to bring:

- *An A4 notebook
- *Good pens
- *Your imagination
- *A willingness to share
- *A sense of humour

WHEN: 9:30am-12:30pm, Saturday 22 August

WHERE: Womenspace, 21-14 Homebush Road, Kedron

YOUR TUTOR: Edwina Shaw is an experienced Brisbane writer and teacher. Her short stories have been published in several major Australian literary journals. Her first book "Thrill Seekers" is due for release in November.